ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE.

The Noted Japanese Actor Sessue Hayakawa in "The Honorable Friend"-Five Part Lacky Production Feature for Monday and Tues-

"Rolling Stones," a picturization of Edgar Selwyn's great stage success, with Owen Moore and Marguerite Courtot in the stellar roles is the feature at the Breed theatre for today. "Rolling Stones" is a mixture of comedy and thrilling melodrama and is presented upon the screen in an amusing and interesting manner.

The Pathe Weekly and a very funny completes the bill for today.

On Monday and Tuesday the Breed will present the noted Japanese actor Sessue Hayakawa in the Jesse Lacky production "The Honorable Friend," a thrilling photodrama written especially for him by Elizabeth McGaffney and prepared for the screen by Eva Unsell.

Sessue Hayakawa is a splendid type of the modern educated Japanese. He studied drama at the University of Chicago, and then returned to his na-Chicago, and then returned to tive country with Japanese transiations of the English classics. He was the first Japanese actor to appear in Shakespearean productions in that Shakespearean productions in that country. Later he returned to this country and married Tsuri Aoki, and she is always seen as his leading wo-working for a wealthy and unscrupulous Japanese curio dealer. The old man is desirous of a bride and sends Hayakawa's picture as his own to Japan, and Hayakawa is sent to the dock to marry the Japanese girl, having been told that she is to be his own wife. When he brings her been with the dock to marry the Japanese girl, having the state of ing been told that she is to be his own wife. When he brings her before the wealthy old curio dealer, his ideals are shattered as he is informed that she is to be taken away from him. How affairs are finally adjusted, and the dishonorable curio dealer receives his just deserts, and the two lovers are re-united, his is presented in an un-usual and most dramatic manner. The third chapter of the million dollar serial "The Great Secret," star-ring Francis X. Bushman and Bever-Rayne will complete the bill for

nday and Tuesday. DAVIS THEATRE.

Four Shiws Today at 1.30, 3.15, 6 and 8.15-Three Big Keith Vaudeville Acts and Douglas Fairbanks in a Triangle Feature Picture.

Following the usual custom of this theatre there will be four complete shows today, at 1.30, 3.15, 6 and 8.15, and if you haven't seen the show don't let anything keep you away from the Davis today. Every act is a Keith headliner and the feature picture is worth the price of admission alone. The big hit on the bill is the Three Kundels, sensational wire artists and acrobats, who have one of the best offerings in this line ever seen here. acrebats, who have one of the best offerings in this line ever seen here. Another top notcher is Mohr and Moffett, who present a pretty singing skit called "A Day With a Composer." Mr. Mohr has written many of the latest popular songs and several are used in the act. The third act is Morgan and West, two clever Dutch comedians, who have a funny singing and talking act that is making a big hit at every performance.

The Triangle feature today is the always popular Douglas Fairbanks, in The Matrimaniac, a five-reel picture that is just bubbling over with good clean Fairbanks comedy, that happygo-lucky style, that always appeals to everyone, and no one ever tires of see-ing. This is conceded to be the best sicture this noted star has ever an peared in. To complete the show there is a funny cartoon comedy called Curling Irons, and Hans and Fritz, the famous Katzenjammer kids are the fun makers in this one. Bring the kiddles this afternoon. They will enloy this show.

For the first half of next week another excellent bill has been booked. other excellent bill has been booked. The Keith vaudeville acts are Conlin Parks Trio, three little pals in a novel scenic singing offering; John Goss, the minstrel man, in a black face comedy skit; and King and Harvey in a singing act of unusual excellence. The feature photoplay will be Clara Williams in Three of Many, a five part Ince production, and there will also be shown Florence Rose's latest fashions entitled Frills and Thrills. entitled Frills and Thrills.

THE AUDITORIUM.

The reopening bill at the Auditorium brought out a large number to watch the presentation of Clara Kimball Young in "The Common Law" and all were much pleased with the high class production that was shown on the creen. The Selig Tribune Weekly aroused auch enthusiasm and the common expression throughout the audiences was that this weekly surpassed any weekly shown here previously. The Property Man comedy aroused much laughter and all in all the show was of the best

For Monday and Tuesday an equally strong bill has been arranged for at which time William Fox will present the famous actress, Valeska Suratt in "Jealousy." The story of this remarkable picture in brief is as follows:

Anne Baxter marries Peter Martin, although she does not love him. She immediately proceeds to neglect him, when she learns that a former lover, Roland Carney, is living in happiness with his bride. Anne decides to win Carney away from his wife.

Her first move is an attempt to make the husband suspicious of Agnes Carney. Anne leads her unsuspecting, into many plots, but each is unsuccessful. For Monday and Tuesday an equally

Then the woman begins a direct attack on Roland. She learns a way by which she thinks he can make a fortune in the stock market at the experse of her own husband and she gives the tip to Carney. But Martin accours her duplicity, and turns the market against Carney.

The result is that the man is ruinded and he turns the man is ruinded and he turns the

Another big attraction is that famous comedian Charlie Chaplin in "The Musketeers of the Siums." This feature comedy has never been seen in Norwich and is one of Chaplin's latest productions. It is in two reels and throughout the whole picture there are side racking laughable situation. there are side racking laughable situ-ations. Remember the price is but 10 cents all over the house.
